HODDER CONSUMER EDUCATION

Hodder & Stoughton was founded in 1868, and built on publishing the biggest quality commercial books of each era, and promoting them adventurously. Publishing in the early years included Winston Churchill, GK Chesterton and The Bible, then the 1920s brought an explosion of commercial fiction at keen prices & "Yellow jackets" series were the pre-cursors to the first paperbacks, and included bestsellers from John Buchan, Sapper and Edgar Wallace. Open Hodder Consumer Education March 2008 Stocklist

LET'S GO

Entirely researched and written by young adults for their peers, Let's Go is a travel guide series that accompanies the free-spirited on treks across the globe. Between our books' covers are descriptions of off-the-path havens from over-touristed cities, ideas for travel on the cheap, and tips for adventure-craving backpackers. We produce close to 50 titles that cover six continents and are translated into seven languages. MACMILLAN

Macmillan South Africa, one of the largest educational publishing houses in South Africa, is proud to share with you information about our exciting educational textbooks, free downloads of educational material, workshops and more. This website is just one more way Macmillan South Africa strives to make education available for all.
